WITH a deep sense of appreciation, we dedicate to you, our friends, this 25th Anniversary Catalogue.

As we look back over these years and receive the friendly greetings and expressions of satisfaction from those whom it has been our pleasure and privilege to serve, we feel reassured that our policy of offering only dependable stock of the highest quality at reasonable prices is amply endorsed.

Each year we offer new and rare varieties—but not until they have been thoroughly tested in our own Nursery and proved hardy and desirable. On the other hand, we are continually discarding those varieties which have developed undesirable traits. Growing the finest quality Nursery Stock is the first consideration of our organization.

This Anniversary we are offering to our friends a suitable present with every order of $5.00 or over. We emphasize that these varieties offered are highest quality stock and in no sense an inferior grade.

In filling orders all planting material will be freshly dug, carefully packed, and delivered within a reasonable distance by our fleet of nursery trucks, direct to you, within a few hours from the time your order is packed.

Our Nursery of over 100 acres, of which 60 acres is composed of over 750,000 trees, plants, and shrubs, gives ample material to meet practically every need in landscape development.

Visit us! Let us show you our fine healthy collection of nursery-grown stock. You will receive a genuine old-fashioned welcome.

LOUIS M. EMPIE,
Johnstown, N. Y.

THE PLANTING SEASON

Spring planting should begin as soon as the ground is in good condition, for best results are obtained by planting early, and the plants being well cared for.

FALL PLANTING

Evergreens may be successfully transplanted during August and September. Perennial plants in fall do best when moved during September and early October; Flowering shrubs and shade trees during October and November or until ground is frozen in December.

Deciduous Trees

NOTE.—The figures following each variety indicate in feet the approximate height of that plant when mature. It must be understood, however, that many varieties in their native habitat greatly exceed this height, but soil and climatic conditions modify their growth and character to a variable extent, and allowance for this has been made in the heights given here. The standard name appears at the left, while the common name is at the right of page.

ANCHOR POST FENCE

We are local representative for the Anchor Post Fence Company. Display fence on exhibition. Anchor Weld, Iron Fence, and Gates, Anchor Woven Wire, and Cedar Fence. Estimates cheerfully given.

Evergreen Trees

We grow our evergreens with the greatest care. Not only do we prune the tops for shape, but we also PRUNE the ROOTS, and TRANSPLANT the trees many times. This results in a mass of fibrous roots which is the deciding factor in the successful planting of evergreens. For this reason our evergreens should not be confused with quickly and cheaply grown, non-pruned and non-transplanted stock.

We also dig our evergreens with a ball of the earth in which they are grown, and wrap the ball securely in burlap. This we do WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE.

All of the Evergreen Shrubs and Vines Thrive Well in Shady Locations.

Hardy Field Grown Roses

Columbia Rose.

While we use every modern method possible to keep our dormant roses fresh for planting out, yet as the season advances the plants are certain to start or become dried to some extent. We, therefore, have established in pots, plants of the same size as the dormant ones, 2 year field grown, and of the leading sorts, which may be planted as late as July and blossom the first season. By planting POT GROWN roses you will be assured that all will grow. All are potted in 6-inch pots.
